Fashioned by winemaking consultant Thomas Brown for the Baseball Hall of Famer and former New York Mets pitcher Tom Seaver, the 2014 Cabernet Sauvignon GTS is a gorgeous example of Diamond Mountain Cabernet Sauvignon. The tannins have been tamed, and the wine displays an inky purple color, while the fruit offers up beautiful blackcurrant, licorice and plum, the body is full, and the texture velvety, opulent and long. This is hard to resist already (no doubt the 2014 vintage has something to do with that), but it is long, rich, and complete, with a further upside of a good 15 or more years.

About Maturity and Drink Dates

About Maturity and Drink Dates: Most reviews in The Wine Advocate include a period during which the wine should ideally be consumed. We express it as a range of years (Drink Dates) and we use that range to calculate a 'Maturity' for the wine as of the current date. Maturity values are: Young - the early drink date is in the future; Early - first third of the drink date
